

Kristin Sabol has been dancing professionally and teaching for the last 20 years. She originally moved to Orlando after receiving her B.S. in Dance Education from Bowling Green State University and has performed for multiple stage and show productions, including the Walt Disney World Resort, the Miss America Organization, and Michael Barron Magic Productions. Miss Sabol has been teaching at RSD since 2004 and is trained in all levels of tap, ballet, jazz, and lyrical. In addition to teaching, she helped create the RSD Teacher Training program identifying up and coming talent and assistants looking for educational development. Miss Sabol continues her own dance education through various organizations and teaching workshops through Orlando Ballet, DMI, and DEA .
