

Miss Nancy comes to Central Florida via Massachusetts, where she taught music and theatre in the public-school system for more than 25 years. She holds an undergraduate degree from Wheaton College (MA) and a Master of Music Education from Boston University. Over the years Nancy has directed numerous choral groups of all ages. She has also directed music for several community theatre groups with both children and adults. Miss Nancy currently has a student on Broadway in “The Jagged Little Pill” Miss Nancy is excited to join the RSD family!